A -- way, and meet my

A -- way! my gal -- lant war -- rior love! The joy -- ous shout is high, O'er vale and mountain, Page, a -- way! The cla -- rion sounds a -- far; I see the Vic -- tor's dale and grove, And echo joins the cry: Oh! say that, from his proud array, Re- - turning from the war! The heroes throng the na - tive tow'rs, I watch, o'er hill and plain, The triumphs of the shin - ing strand, Thy valiant Lord is there, And thou shalt from his hap - py hour, That brings him home a - - gain, Then gallop a - way, my La - dy's hand, The promis'd greeting bear: Then gallop a - way, my young and brave! The welcome call a - - - - boy, And merrily speed, thy young and brave! The welcome call o - - - - bey, And merrily speed, thy eager steed, My gallant boy, a - way!

eager steed, My gallant boy, a - way!
